Writing Center Job Interview Questions

Prospective tutors are interviewed by the Writing Center Coordinator after they have submitted a formal application.

1. What makes you interested in working at the Writing Center?
2. What would be your strengths as a Writing Center tutor? What would you want to learn more about?
3. What do you like most about writing? What do you find challenging about writing, and how do you face those challenges?
4. What approach would you take if you were trying to work with an uncooperative student?
5. In what ways would you help make the Writing Center a professional and positive environment?
6. One of the main goals of the Writing Center is to have each session be collaborative and to have the student you are tutoring be as active/inolved as possible during the tutoring session. What are some tutoring strategies, techniques or actions you might use to keep the person you are tutoring actively involved?
7. What questions do you have about the Writing Center or working at the Writing Center? What would you like to know?
